

Welcome to NavyFRG.com

NAVYFRG.COM is looking for volunteers to help redesign and redefine the site. We are planning on expanding on the following:

- Local Support Networks
- Collaborative mini sites for FRGs and other groups
- online marketplace for military spouses (craft, etc)
- resource and resource directory
- full Facebook integration
- etc.

If you are interested in getting involved contact us!

NavyFRG.com offers a networking community for military families, not just FRG associations!

- Create groups
("daycare in San Diego", "runners of Virginia Beach", "JWS FRG"...)
 - Join groups
 - Groups have private forums, PMS, member management, bulletin, files and events.
 - Connect with friends, manage profiles, write blogs
 - Discussion boards
 - Submit articles, links and content to the site

We hope that NavyFRG.com brings our community together by facilitating communications between members.

Registration is free and you can create groups for free as well.
